

6516204939.txt

this is just another issue which the gov't would want to waste our tax dollars on because the NAB wants to control the airwaves. we should have the right to make choices on what we want to listen to and the NAB wants to control that right. when they decide to improve the quality and availability of what comes out of the airwaves, i will definitely and would rather not pay for my radio -- unfortunately, at this time, they give me no other choice.